VetCoin® HQ Update 2021-10-18

Before you get too far into this newsletter I want to offer some advice. Save it. There might be something in here that will benefit you later on.

S1 – Crypto Question: What's the deal with NFTs?

Are you interested in NFTs? Do you even know what NFTs are? They're certainly the hot hand right now and you owe it to yourself to do a bit of learning about them lest you find yourself, as Frank would say, Learnin' the Blues. There are scores of things that can be done with an NFT. We have some ideas, and we're also interested in your thoughts.

S2 VetCoin Community: Who is VetCoin™ Anyway?

It's us. All of us. But, the idea had to start somewhere. Have you heard the story about the guys standing around the water cooler at work and come up with a great idea? That was us: Aaron, Joey, and yours truly! Sort of. The actual water cooler was about 15 feet away and I'm pretty sure the tank was empty – but that's not the important part. When cryptocurrency was making big news back in April, we were talking about Bitcoin and Aaron said, perhaps jokingly, "I wonder how Vetcoin is doing." So we went to find out…and it wasn't. However, the name was trademarked. Joey reached out to this guy Ahmad who owned the trademark for Vetcoin since 2019 (he was way ahead of us) and voila – we teamed up to make VetCoin™ a reality. Joey said this was serendipity, but someone else already had that idea.

S3 – Upcoming Events: What's coming next?

The members of VetCoin HQ continue discussing options with developers and wargaming the future of VetCoin. We're also working on our discord channel to make it more user friendly. Your feedback is always welcome.
