VetCoin® HQ Dispatch for 2021-11-15

What an amazing week it has been since the last Dispatch from VetCoinHQ! If you aren't following our different social media outreach efforts, you risk missing out on what's happening. So, if what you read below is a surprise…maybe get linked to us via one of the hyperlinks below. Seriously. I can't make this any easier for you.

We have been really impressed by the response to the VetCoin public launch on Veteran's Day. We held a virtual launch party on Zoom with simulcast on Facebook. Participation was good and the team had a great time doing it. We added a Cash App option and have been working out the challenges. Bitcoin and Ethereum will always work. Please review the Whitepaper and instructions before making a purchase!

VetCoin® News: We held a Launch Party on Veteran's Day!

We had a great time with our launch party last week. I hope many of you were fortunate enough to attend. If you weren't that's OK – you can catch the video on our website. Our focus during the launch was to explain what VetCoin is and how it works. Take a look and let us know what you think. VetCoin is well on its way to create the ecosystem that connects, enables, and transforms the veteran community and we couldn't be happier.

The VetCoin Foundation: We Podcasted too!

As I mentioned last week, myself and the VetCoin Foundation President, Dr. Aaron Bazin, had the fortunate experience of discussing VetCoin on The Spotlight. Our podcast aired on the 10th, the day before launch, and it's pretty awesome. If you want to understand what VetCoin is from the perspective of two out of the original four members, listen in.

The VetCoin Start-Up Challenge Continues. That's right! It's the VetCoin Start-Up Challenge and we're giving up to $5000 USD and 100M VetCoin to two (2) deserving businesses. We extended the deadline to allow for more competition so it's not too late to get involved!

Veteran's Day was pretty amazing for us at VetCoin HQ. I hope yours was as well. Remember that November is Veterans and Military Families Month. If you served or continue to serve, take a moment to thank you families.

RLTW!
