New Swag Design

Every 30 days our friends at Sua Sponte Design drop a new design for VetCoin apparel. Go check it out! Using Veteran owned businesses to provide products and services in the VETaverse is how we ENABLE.

Our First Nonprofit is listed

No Longer Limited Duty beat everyone else to become the first nonprofit listed in the VetCoin portal. They offer Holistic healthcare options to Veterans at no cost to them. These services include but are not limited to: chiropractic, massage, physical therapy, functional neurology, health and wellness coaching and IV therapy. Go check them out in the VOB Portal!

We're all going to bootcamp

This week Aaron talks about Ether and Polygon to help folks understand how to make the VETaverse work. You will find all of the bootcamp videos on our YouTube channel. Want to get smart? Watch our videos! Be a VetCoin knowledge base. This is how we ENABLE!

What's the Government doing now?

To no great surprise to anyone, "The Biden administration is preparing to release an initial government-wide strategy for digital assets as soon as next month and task federal agencies with assessing the risks and opportunities that they pose." What does that mean? In short, it appears the forces of the Executive seek to centralize the decentralized. See this article from Bloomberg to read all about it.

The Synapse Summit

In a couple of weeks some of us from VetCoin HQ are heading to the Synapse Summit to see how we can bring technology and innovation initiatives into the VETaverse. FYI – they have a military discount! Take advantage of the opportunity if you can, or view parts of the event virtually. It's going to be great!

Russ' Note

Over the weekend I had the fortunate opportunity to lend a hand to my friend Bill and his Porkganic competition barbecue team at the Lakeland Pigfest. Bill's team is all veteran volunteers and they raised $3500 for a local veteran oriented nonprofit My Warrior's Place. This is a great nonprofit dedicated to providing a safe refuge and bring about healing and hope to all Veterans and Military Service Members who have returned from the battlefield. Great job Porkganic!

RLTW!
